

DID YOU KNOW?

Memphis was founded in 1819 and named after an ancient capital city of Egypt that sat on the Nile River.

TEACH 901

TEACH 901

DID YOU KNOW?

The Memphis Pyramid is 321 feet tall, about 32 stories, and inside is the tallest freestanding elevator in America.

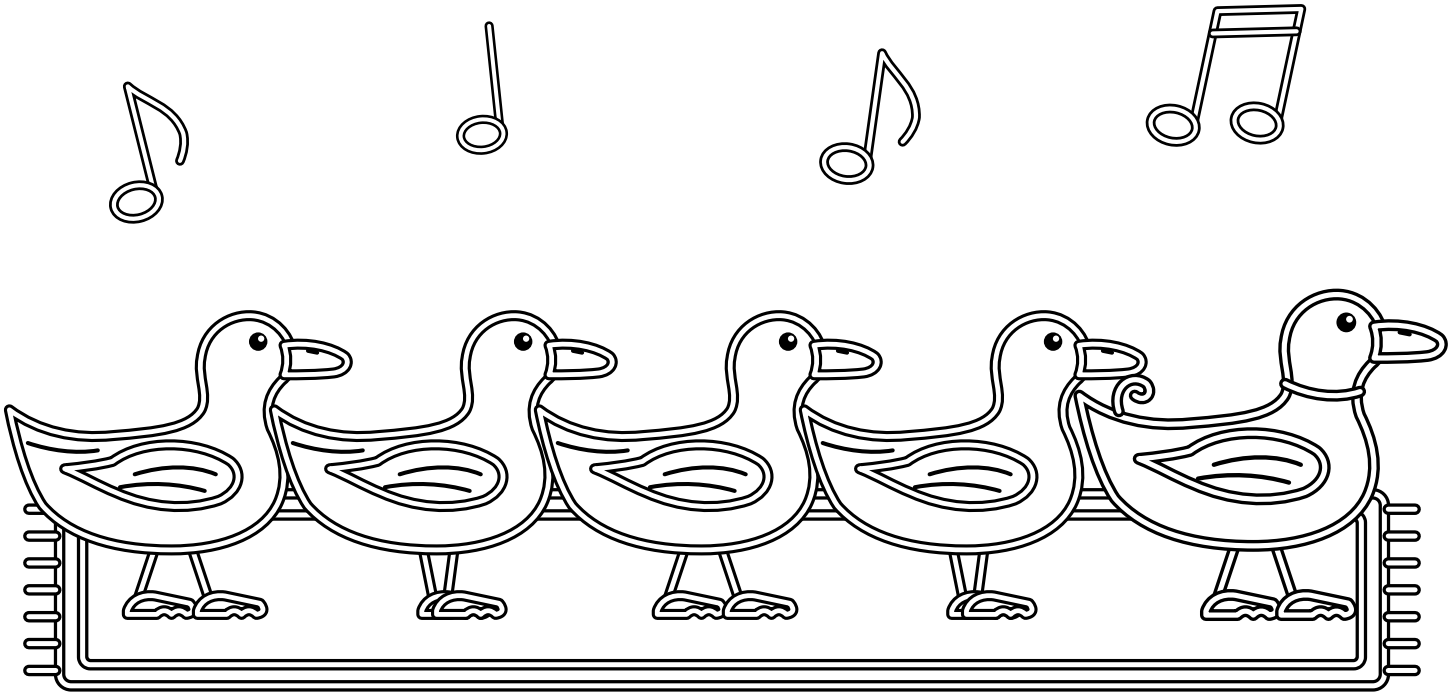

TEACH 901

DID YOU KNOW?

The University of Memphis, home of the Tigers, opened in 1912 as West Tennessee State Normal School, a school built to train teachers.

Get your DUCKS in a row!

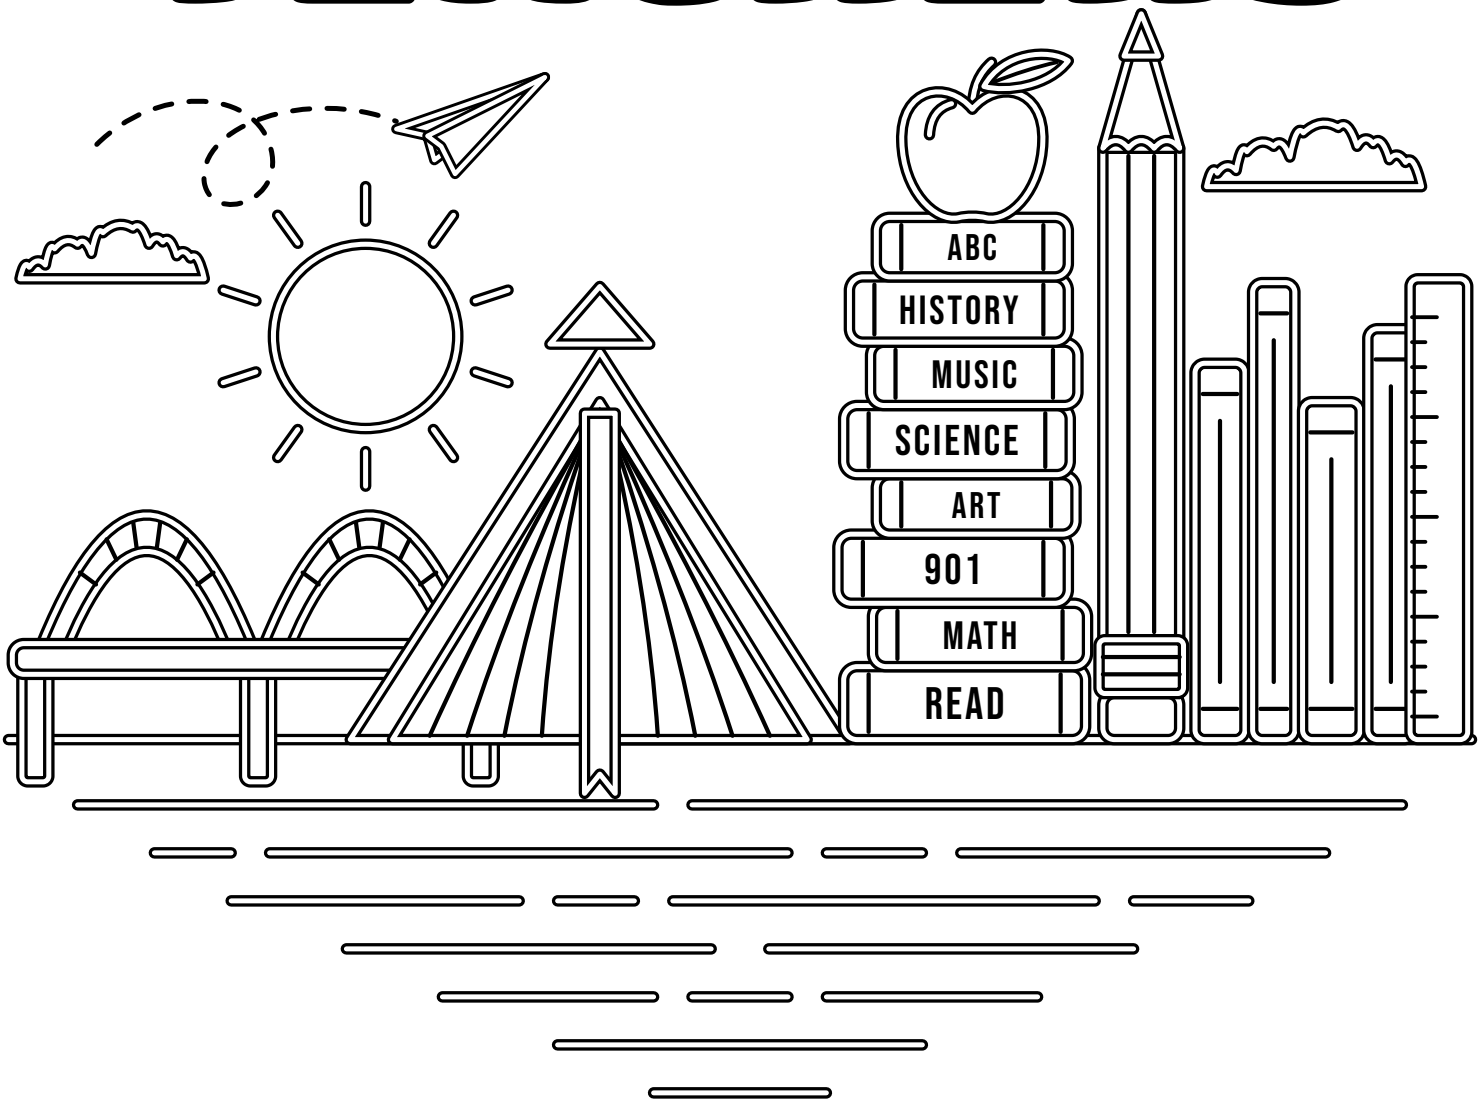

DID YOU KNOW?

Since 1940, ducks at The Peabody hotel have marched down a red carpet to the lobby fountain every day at 11 a.m., then back up at 5 p.m.

TEACH 901

Built by TEACHERS

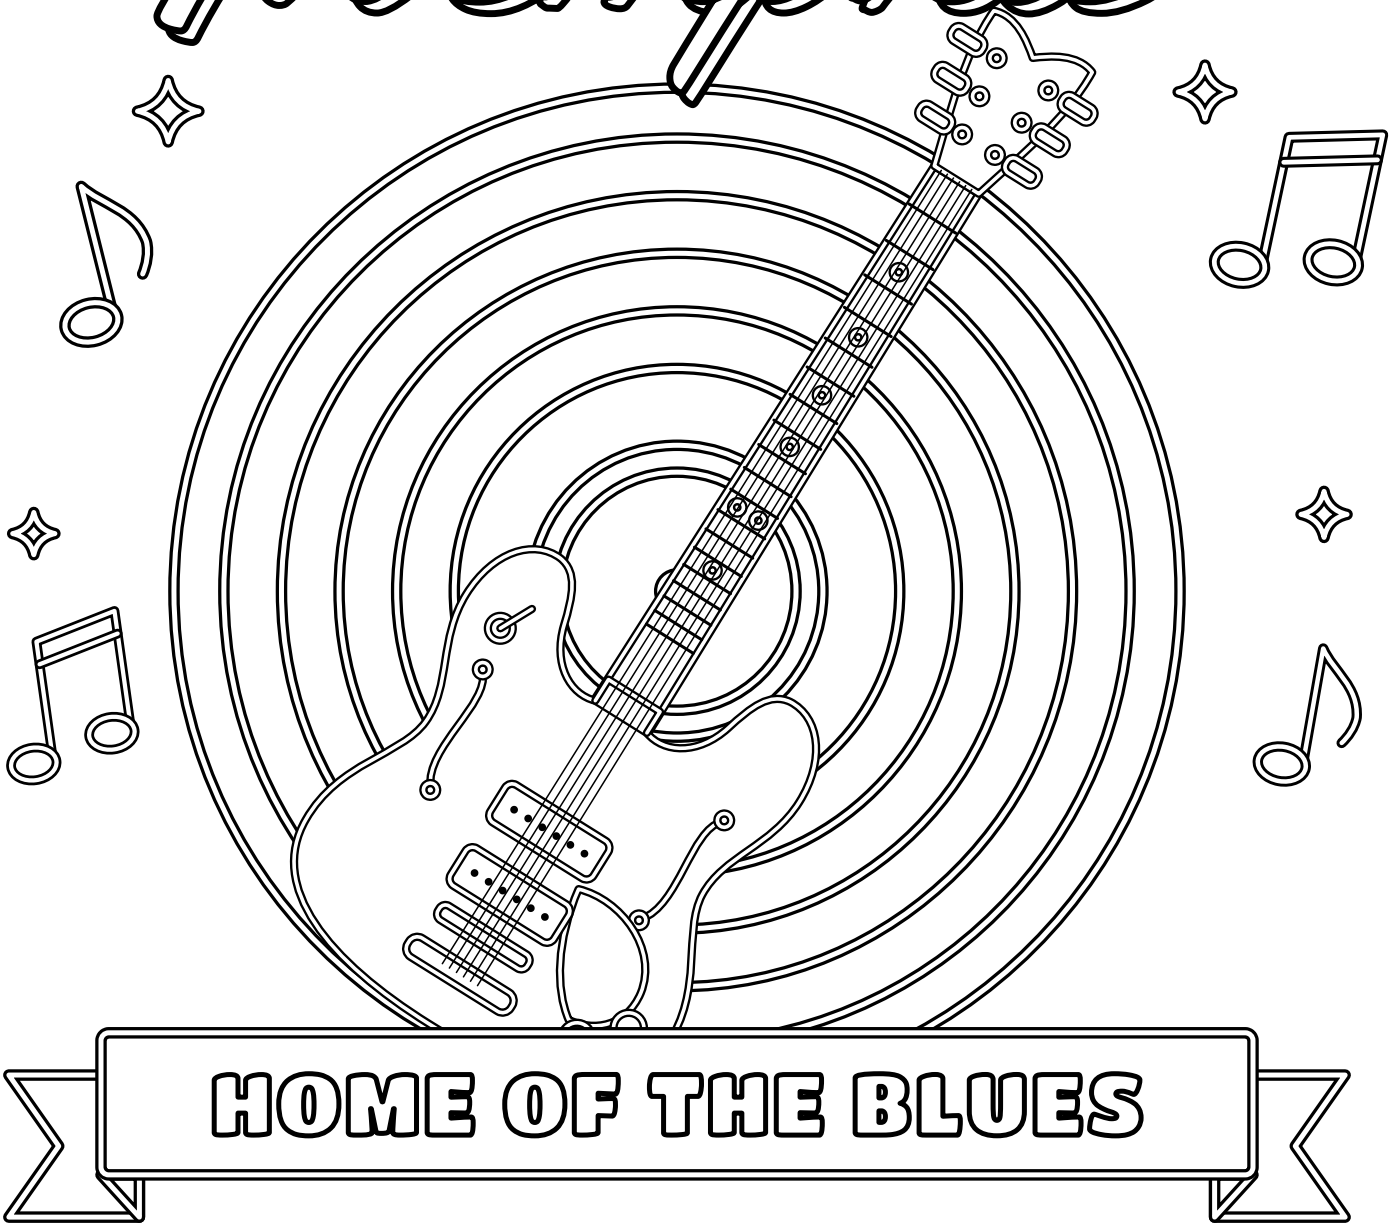

DID YOU KNOW?

The Benjamin L. Hooks Central Library is the biggest library in the Memphis Public Libraries system and holds about 625,000 books and other items.

TEACH 901

Memphis

HOME OF THE BLUES

DID YOU KNOW?

In 1977, an act of Congress officially declared Memphis's Beale Street the Home of the Blues.

TEACH 901